

LIST OF EVENTS AND REGISTRATION

Dear colleagues,

During the Innovation Week, the Department of International and Diplomatic Studies organises events for students of the programme International and Diplomatic Studies. Nevertheless, we also welcome students of other programmes delivered by the Faculty of International Relations and other faculties of VŠE, as well as Exchange students. To register, use the link provided for the event below.

Based on the status of registrations as of October 29, 2024, changes to the programme may be made. Registrants will be notified by email if this is the case.

DISCUSSION: CHALLENGES AND JOYS OF WORKING FOR AN INTERGOVERNMENTAL ORGANIZATION WITH SPECIAL FOCUS ON UNESCO

Are you considering a career in an international intergovernmental organisation? Do you have an idea how to become a staff member of an international organisation? Do you know what makes the service for an international organization special? The answers to these questions and more about the privileges and immunities of international officials, conditions of service, medical and pension coverage, rental subsidy, different categories of leave and also disciplinary measures will be revealed by Dr. Jan Hladík in an online lecture on Monday November 4th, 2024 at 3 p.m. in MS Teams.

UNDERSTANDING HUNGARY: HISTORICAL ROOTS OF THE RECENT HUNGARY

Knowledge of the Hungarian history is essential for understanding the recent Hungary and Hungarian society and politics. The Hungarian history was full of highs and lows. This lecture gives an introduction to the ideological and historical roots of this topic. The presentation shows the “ferry-land” conception between East and the West, the Hungarian independence traditions and the Hungarian ideas about the cooperation between the Central European nations.

The lecturer is dr. Máté Gali PhD, historian, research fellow of the Mathias Corvinus Collegium (Budapest, Hungary).
